Categories of Student Organizations

Student Organizations place themselves into one of twelve categories based upon their interests and goals. This is done to foster communication between clubs that may share similar philosophical underpinnings and to assist interested students in locating and finding a suitable organization for their needs. The categories available to select from are:

Departmental
Affiliated with a University department.

Honorary
Main purpose is to recognize the attainment of scholarship of superior quality. There are honoraries for each class, special interest, as well as for almost all of the academic disciplines.

Governing Body
Elected to represent a number of organizations in the same category (i.e., IFC oversees men’s fraternities).

International/Cultural
Mission is to study or promote the culture of other nations and/or ethnic groups.

Leadership
Mission is to promote development of leadership skills among its members.

Service
Mission is to provide service to the UA and/or Tucson community.

Religious
Mission is to further the interest of a particular church, sect, or denomination.

Political
Mission is to further the interest of a particular political group or issue.

Professional
Mission relating to a professional career, many of which are nationally affiliated.

Sports
Mission is to promote a common interest and to foster participation, officiating of and competition in a specific sport or recreational activity.

Special Interest
Mission does not coincide with any of the other categories.

Social Greek Letter
Private, national, or international Social Greek Letter, voluntary associations which meet all of the following criteria:

1. The sponsoring bodies are legal corporations.
2. They have organizational goals which are social/service/fraternal rather than honorary, professional, religious, or political. The emphasis of these groups is the personal development of members. Membership in more than one such fraternal organization at once is not permitted.
3. They may select members according to subjective criteria consistent with the nondiscriminatory polices of the University. They may be entitled to gender expression if they meet the provision of Section 86.14 of the regulations promulgated under title IX of the U.S. Education Act Amendment of 1972.
4. They are recognized by their respective local governing body at The University of Arizona: Interfraternity Council, National Pan-Hellenic Council, or Panhellenic Association.

A. The organization president agrees to accept full legal responsibility for the group’s adherence to its constitution and bylaws, University policies and directives by authorized University officials, the University of Arizona Student Organization Policy and Forms Handbook for Student Leaders and Advisors, the University of Arizona Student Code of Conduct and the University Rule for Preserving Maintenance of Public Order; and local, state and federal laws. D. Student organizations shall abide by the following University of Arizona nondiscrimination policy, except as exempted under federal or other legislative protections. “Student Organizations shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, disabled veteran’s status, or Vietnam era veterans status or age in any of its policies, procedures or practices. This includes but is not limited to recruiting membership, organization activities or opportunity to hold office.”

E. Active membership in recognized University organizations is limited to students currently enrolled at the University of Arizona. Other persons may be admitted to associate membership in a recognized organization if its constitution and bylaws so provide. The following functions and activities must be reserved for active members;

- Holding office in the organization. (Associate members may not hold office).
- Presiding, officiating, voting, making or seconding motions at any meeting of the organization, or acting as its spokesperson. (Associate members may attend and as a member of the audience, speak at meetings.)
- Working at tables and distributing materials on campus on behalf of the organization. (Associate members may assist active members in working at tables providing that an active member is present at all times and responsible for the table and/or the distribution.)
• Soliciting funds on behalf of the organization. (Associate members may not solicit funds.)

• The above points are not intended as a comprehensive definition of active membership; other functions or acts may also indicate that a person is participating as an active member of an organization.

F. Each Non-Social Greek Letter student organization must have a Faculty/Staff Advisor. A Faculty/Staff Advisor is defined as being a full-time faculty, administrator, or staff member. Social Greek Letter organizations must have a chapter advisor.

G. All student organizations are expected to follow University rules and regulations governing the use of funds. All debts, whether incurred on or off campus, must be paid. Debts to the University will result in responsible parties being encumbered, among other potential individual or organizational sanctions. (Refer to the Responsibility Agreement for Expenditures on the Recognition Application.)

H. Organizations may not attempt to assume functions of established student or faculty governments like ASUA or GPSC.

I. Activities or organizations may not interfere with the normal operation of the University.

J. Student organizations, in the conduct of their activity, cannot purport to represent the institution without express prior written consent from the Arizona Board of Regents.

K. All organizations are expected to cooperate with the University in building and maintaining positive relationships with neighbors (local, national, and international).

V. Indemnification Clause:

The recognized student organization and its individual active, inactive, or associate members shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State of Arizona, the Arizona Board of Regents, the University of Arizona, their officers, employees and agents from and against any and all liability, loss, claims, damages or expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising from or related to the performance by the University or the organization or their respective agents of any obligation or responsibility referenced in this Student Organization Policy and Form Handbook for Student Leaders and Advisors or any other activity undertaken for any purpose by the organization or its individual active, inactive, or associate members, or guests or invitees regardless whether such activities are negligent or intentional acts or omission. This indemnification does not extend to actions caused by the sole negligence of the University of Arizona or its employees.

VI. Privileges Within the University System:

As the student organization system is an integral part of the co-curricular experience at the University of Arizona, it may thereby receive certain privileges. These privileges are given to those recognized student organizations who are in good standing with the University of Arizona through the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership and who comply with specific requirements related to each of those specific privileges. Potential privileges can be found earlier in this Handbook, on Page 4.

VII. Review, Suspension, or Revoked Recognition:

A. Where the University alleges that the organization, its officers or its individual members have failed to comply with the Requirements for Maintaining Recognition (Section IV), the University may follow established procedures to conduct an investigation and render sanctions, or conduct an administrative review and take summary action as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, or utilize other disciplinary policies and procedures as established with respect to student organizations. Written appeals will be handled per the 2000 Student Disciplinary Procedures.

B. The University may elect, in lieu of revoking recognition, to impose educational and/or punitive measures against the organization and/or its officers, including but not limited to academic probation or expulsion.

C. An organization whose recognition is suspended loses the opportunity to use the name of the University, to use University facilities, to schedule activities on campus, and other privileges enumerated in Section VI or as established by the University. A suspended organization must continue to comply with those requirements stipulated under Requirements for Maintaining Recognition (Section IV). Failure to do so will prevent the organization from having recognition reinstated.
Responsibilities

Responsibilities of Registered Student Organizations

Student organizations at the University of Arizona shall complement the academic mission of the University and enhance the educational experience for students. Organizations will be held responsible for actions of the group membership, guests, and individuals. An organization is responsible for its own actions.

The organization will be held responsible:

When the organization fails to comply with a duty imposed by a written University policy, including, but not limited to, improper membership education and initiation, improper organizational registration of activities for which registration and or permission is required; failure to comply with applicable health and safety regulations; misuse of University property, facilities and equipment; violations of University regulations on the use of alcohol; misrepresentation of the organization or group; abuse of student election procedures and regulations; misappropriation of funds; and violations of any rule or policy applicable to organizations.

When the organizational purposes are not compatible with the educational purposes of the University; engage in financial mismanagement; or conduct activities that are in violation of University regulations, local, and state laws.

When a student organization or an affiliated University group is charged with a violation of the Code of Student Conduct, the presiding officer or individuals affiliated with the group shall be required to participate in proceedings conducted under this Code as representatives of the group.

When one or more officers refuses or neglects to perform duties outlined in the Code of Student Conduct.

Shared Responsibility for Infractions

Students and organizations may be held responsible for the conduct of their guests while on University premises, at University-sponsored or supervised activities, and at functions sponsored by any registered student organization.

Organizational Responsibility

A complaint may be filed against an organization under the Code of Student Conduct. An organization and its members may be held collectively and individually responsible for violations of the Code by those associated with the organization, including guests and alumni of the organization. When a complaint is filed with the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership naming an organization as Respondent, the presiding officer and/or students affiliated with the group shall be required to participate in meetings and hearings held by the Student Organization Hearing Board as representatives of the group.
Financial Management for Clubs: Check & Balances

Introduction
The following are strategies to help maintain the integrity of your organizational finances. An accurate and honest accounting of your clubs funds need not be a challenge. With a systematic application of routine bookkeeping and one or two of these interventions the individual officers and the organization proper can sleep more comfortably.

Cash is a Problem
To put it simply: avoid using cash if it all possible. Receipts should be collected in the form of checks made out to the organization rather than in cash. Dues, fees, and other receivables should be collected by check. Using this method provides a record for the issuer of the check in the form of the canceled check, thereby eliminating the need for receipts. More important, the check is negotiable only to the extent that it can be deposited in the organization’s account. It is much more difficult to keep track of cash, and, unfortunately, cash has a way of disappearing. The organization’s obligations should also be paid by check. Cash payments by officers, for example, will require reimbursement, which can be a bit messy. The person paying with cash on behalf of the organization will have to produce a receipt in order to be reimbursed. People lose receipts, and treasurers do not like having to keep a file of receipts, so the best way to handle all financial obligations is to pay them by check.

Co-Signing Checks can keep you on Budget
Eliminating the use of cash will not solve all the organization’s financial problems. Checks over a certain amount should require a second signature. This approach will ensure, first, that significant expenditures are reviewed to make sure they are appropriate, and second, that the checks are being drawn to the right person or organization. Little could be worse for an organization in a financial sense than a misunderstanding arising over a large expenditure that was for the wrong item or that was drafted to the wrong payee. Failing to follow this procedure could be devastating for the organization and its members.

Periodic Reports is Preventative Maintenance
Periodic reports should be produced by the treasurer to be reviewed by the leadership of the organization, you, and, as appropriate, the members. At a minimum, operating statements should be produced every quarter, although every month would be far more desirable. Balance sheets should be produced at least once each quarter, preferably at the end of the quarter. These materials are very useful to the leadership in determining if the budget for the organization is being managed as it was proposed. If there are substantial variances from the budgeted plan, they should be pointed out by the treasurer to the executive committee as soon as the problems are identified. You should spend extra time with the treasurer if problems arise that could potentially affect the organization’s financial health. Financial problems rarely solve themselves; they should be addressed as early as possible in the fiscal year.

Audits
Most organizations undergo a change in leadership at least once a year. Consequently, student organizations frequently are in a state of transition, and the dilemma of who exactly is responsible for which tasks can lead to real problems. Student leaders come and go, but the fiscal records of the organization must be maintained from one year to the next. Accordingly, we recommend that an audit of the organization’s financial records be conducted each time there is a change in the executive leadership (meaning the president, the treasurer, or both). For most organizations with a limited scope, a student majoring in accounting, finance, or a similar discipline could be invited to conduct the audit. Conducting an audit will serve as a good experience for the student and will be a valuable service for the organization. In larger more financially complex organization a professional auditor may need to be contacted. Most audits are very simple. The auditor checks receipts against deposits, and expenditures against the disbursement records of the organization. If the auditor identifies a problem, it is more likely the result of an honest mistake than a major conspiracy to defraud the organization of funds. It is best that the audit be conducted as a matter of routine procedure rather than as a result of a disaster. You can be very helpful in insisting that the audit be conducted.
Taxes & Fundraising

Taxes
We tread gingerly into the area of taxes because of the complexity of state and federal tax codes as well as various Social Security regulations. It is possible that a student organization may have to pay sales taxes on items sold, withhold income taxes and FICA contributions from employees pay worker’s compensation insurance, and mail W-2 forms to employees. If organization is formed as a corporation, it will have to file annual reports with the Internal Revenue Service, and if the organization holds real property, it may have to pay real estate taxes on that property.

Interestingly and most relevant is that student organizations require a tax ID number to establish a checking account, have investments as simple as a passbook savings account, or conduct other financial business.

To obtain a Tax ID number visit the Internal Revenue Service On Line at "http://www.irs.gov/businesses/small/article/0,,id=102767,00.html"

Complete the SS-4 Form and your Club’s Tax ID number will be issued to you on line.

Fundraising and Grand Opportunities
Fundraising seems simple, but it is not. If it were, most institutions would experience record-breaking success in their advancement activities every year. Fundraising is hard work, with many disappointments along the way. Moreover, some institutions have very tight regulations governing fundraising activities on campus. Funds cannot be raised at any time, place, or manner convenient to students.

Below is a list of a few examples of fundraisers. Please remember that all of these fundraisers may not be appropriate for every club

Two Primary Sources for Funds, Fundraising and Grants

Associated Students at the University of Arizona
ASUA provides funding to all recognized clubs on campus and recommends an early start to the funding process. All funding requests are considered on a case by case basis. A flyer outlining the funding process is found in the Forms section of this handbook. You can contact one of the six Club Advocates at 621-6694 or 621-ASUA with questions about the funding process or ASUA. Please refer on line to Club Funding requirements, and please note any funding request is not complete until you have met with a Club Advocate. For more information visit the website at http://asua.arizona.edu/ or email them at asua@email.arizona.edu

To assist you in generating funds ASUA has listed a dozen fund raising ideas as well as the names and numbers for contact people that you should reach if interested. As you review the list of ideas and contacts you may have some new ideas for fund raising please contact a club advocate at ASUA, so it can be added to this resource. http://asua.arizona.edu/tips.htm

Graduate and Professional School Council The GPSC provides Special & Initial Club Funding for recognized clubs whose membership is at least 50% UA graduate and professional students. A flyer outlining the funding process is found in the Forms section of this handbook. For more information please visit the GPSC website at HYPERLINK "http://www.gpsc.arizona.edu/" http://www.gpsc.arizona.edu/ or email them at gpsc@u.arizona.edu

The GPSC has also gathered a listing of eleven on campus sources for club funding. This comprehensive listing of fund and grant sources can be accessed at http://www.gpsc.arizona.edu/sections/funding/fundingPrograms.php.
Sports Clubs

A Sport Club is a recognized student organization which exists to promote and develop interest in a particular sport of physical activity. These interests can be competitive, recreational, or instructional in nature. Clubs may represent the University in intercollegiate competition or conduct intra-club activities such as practice, instruction, social, and tournament play.

The Sport Club Program is administered through the Department of Campus Recreation which serves as an administrative body, resource, and information center for those involved in the Sport Club Program. The Sport Club Program has been developed for the purpose of engaging in extramural-intercollegiate sporting activities.

The Sport Club Program is housed in the Student Recreation Center and provides supportive administrators who assist the clubs with the following:

- Facilities - scheduling, practices, events, and meetings.
- Equipment - scoreboards, field lining materials, tables, chairs, etc.
- Limited Financial Support oversees club’s university accounts and assists in fund allocation procedures and provides fund-raising opportunities.
- A structure to assist clubs in promoting their various functions and competitive activities.
- Provides various resources to assist clubs in development and improving organization.
- The Sport Club Program also provides athletic trainer services for clubs.

Sport Club recognition is a two step process.
1. Clubs must be registered and recognized by the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership.
2. Clubs must then be registered by the Department of Campus Recreation.

Listservs for Student Organizations

What is a listserv? A listserv is a means of communicating with a group of people via email without the need to type in all their addresses each time. Professors use them to communicate on coursework; you may already be a part of a listserv.

Creating Your Organization Listserv:

• As President you are encouraged to create an interactive listserv so that members may hold discussions as well as get up-to-date information about upcoming meetings. Whatever your reasons be certain to talk to the members about how you will use the student organization listserv. It is best to have a discussion before you set up a new listserv.

• Log on to the University web site for listservs http://listserv.arizona.edu/

Events UA Listserv-

A Posting Board for your Events

• Allows student organizations to communicate information regarding their events to students.

• Anyone using a UA email address can subscribe and post to this list for the purpose of sharing student organization activity related information. To subscribe simply send an email message to listserv@listserv.arizona.edu, leave the subject line blank and write Subscribe EVENTSUA firstname lastname in the body of the email. Do not include a signature file.

• Encourage all your members to join this listserv and be informed about campus activities!

• Once you have subscribed you may post messages to this listserv.

LEADUA - A Leadership Listserv for Presidents

• An electronic information source for student organization presidents at the University of Arizona.

• The purpose of the listserv is to inform student organization presidents about UA Policy changes, campus involvement opportunities and department-sponsored events open to all students on campus.

• Occasionally University administrators form task forces or committees where they would like to have student leader input. A common way to ask for student volunteers is to use this listserv.

• This listserv is not interactive. All messages are posted through the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership.

• Presidents are automatically added to the listserv as a requirement for recognition. If the President chooses not to be on the listserv he/she must submit a “Change of Officer” form to the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership with the new or alternative president’s information, or the organization’s recognition will be revoked.

• Presidents are responsible for all policy changes posted to the listserv.

• Presidents are encouraged to forward upcoming club events and other school pertinent organization information to the Student Coordinator for Organization Recognition via email at: UAORGS@Email.Arizona.Edu. Please be certain that your e-mail’s content is pertinent to the general student body. Posting of organizational events is done at the sole discretion of the Student Coordinator for Organization Recognition and the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership.
Student Organization Webpages

One of the services available to recognized student organizations is the hosting of web pages for your student organization. The World Wide Web and all the associated information is accessible to people around the globe. Concise, accurate information is an important ingredient in the creation of a successful web page for your organization.

If your organization is interested in obtaining a web site account from ASUA, please contact ASUA at 621-2782 or at asua@email.arizona.edu. Below is a checklist of items that the University recommends student organizations include in their home page:

- Organization, University name, and the year. For example: Blue Key Honorary - The University of Arizona - 1997
- Organization mission: What does the organization do? What is the organization’s purpose?
- Organization goals: How does the organization accomplish its purpose? What are the organization’s activities?
- A list of organization officers & advisor: Organization officers’ names and a method (email/phone) to contact these individuals.
- How does a qualified UA student become involved in this organization? Inform people what they need to do to become an active member of the organization.
- A list of scheduled meetings: Include the date, time, and location of meetings.
- A list of scheduled events and activities.

Get as creative as you can with your web page! Remember to respect copyright and intellectual property rights. Web pages must adhere to The University of Arizona Copyright and Intellectual Property Rights, terms and conditions of software licensing agreements, and all applicable copyright and intellectual property laws. For further clarification please visit: http://www.arizona.edu/home/privacy-copyright.php or contact Dan Lee at 621-6433, leed@u.arizona.edu.

To help you learn how to create an interesting, creative home page, OSCR offers free workshops to members of the University community. For more information please visit: http://www.oscr.arizona.edu or contact: Catherine Zavala at 626-3831.

UA Student Mailing Labels and Bulk Mailing

Student organizations may request labels or statistical/demographic data information on current students through the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership (SUMC, RM 404).

Please be aware of the following standing policies regarding label requests and use of UA student information provided to UA student organizations:

• No advertisements (other than a “one-line sponsorship”) may be displayed in any mailings by any commercial vendors if using mailing labels provided by UA.

• A formal written request must be turned in by the student organization indicating the purpose of the mailing and include information samples to be mailed out. The labels will be sent to the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership, who will then coordinate a centralized mailing process.

• Mailing labels and the information provided in mailing labels may not be provided, given to, or shared with any commercial vendor or outside entity.

• The use of UA labels is restricted solely to those organizations who have been provided the necessary documentation to complete a mailing to students.

• All mailings must be approved for content by the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership, SUMC 404. Do not copy, label, or prepare any mailings until you confirm that your mailer has been approved!

Commercial Activity/Sponsorship Policies

POLICY
The programs and activities of student groups can be greatly enhanced by the support of commercial vendors and other off-campus organizations. Student groups and off-campus vendors have different motives and desires. Student groups disseminate information to encourage student participation. These activities are part of the co-curricular education of students at the University. Commercial vendors and off-campus organizations desire public exposure to market a product or service or solicit support for their organization. This policy is established to protect the integrity of the educational experience while encouraging the collaboration of student groups and vendors. A complete copy of the Commercial Activity Policy and Implementation Rules is available from Mall Scheduling Office. This policy governs all commercial activity (including sales, demonstrations, and giveaways) on areas of campus within the jurisdiction of the Campus & Mall Activity Coordinator. For further information about this policy please contact the Commercial and Mall Activity Coordinator at 626-2630.

Commercial Activity
- The Old Chem lawn of the University Mall has been designated for commercial activity. (subject to change)
- The number of selling days per semester by a single vendor is limited to five.
- Sponsoring organizations must receive a mutually agreed upon minimum amount or percentage of profits from the vendor.
- Vendors must provide appropriate licenses as noted in the policy and pay appropriate Mall use fees.
- Food cannot be sold on the Mall without the special permission of the Student Unions; generally, food sales are prohibited.

Sponsoring Vendors
Sponsoring Commercial Activity on the Mall is a benefit to being a recognized student organization at The University of Arizona. Sponsorship, in one word, is fundraising. Bringing an approved vendor to the Mall allows your group to earn money. Examples of vendors include, but are not limited to, jewelry, clothing, credit cards and hand made crafts. Vendors not only pay a student organization for sponsorship, they also pay a mall use fee. Student organizations can earn an average of $25 or more per day.

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY/VENDOR SPONSORSHIP POLICY
Synopsis: Vendors are allowed on the Mall a maximum of 5 times per semester. They must be sponsored by a recognized student organization and will be considered a fundraiser for the organization. Vendors pay Mall use fees: $65 per day for non credit card; $150 per day for credit card. Vendors also agree with the student organization’s contact prior to the commercial activity on a sum of money to be given to the organization. A Mall Activity Request Form must be completed. The Bookstore’s approval is required for commercial activity. (Items must not compete with the Bookstore). A copy of the vendor’s license or tax ID number must also be submitted with the Request Form.

HAZING POLICY

The University seeks to promote a safe environment where students may participate in activities and organizations without compromising their health, safety or welfare. It is, therefore, the University’s policy that hazing is prohibited. The impact of hazing activities can result in irrevocable harm to its victims, their families and the University community. Prevention of hazing is the responsibility of every member of the University community. Each organization, as well as each individual, must accept the personal obligation to uphold the basic community values of being just, civil and respectful of the rights of others.

I. Hazing is prohibited. "Hazing" means any intentional, knowing or reckless act committed by a student, whether individually or in concert with other persons, against another student, and in which both of the following apply:
   a. The act was committed in connection with an initiation into, an affiliation with or the maintenance of membership in any organization that is affiliated with the University; and
   b. The act contributes to a substantial risk of potential physical injury, mental harm or degradation, or causes physical injury, mental harm or personal degradation.

II. Any solicitation to engage in hazing is prohibited.

III. It is not a defense to a violation of this policy that the hazing victim consented to or acquiesced in the hazing activity.

IV. All students, faculty, and staff must take reasonable measures within the scope of their individual authority to prevent violations of this policy.

V. Violations of this policy or interference in an investigation under this policy by students or student organizations are subject to sanctions under the Student Code of Conduct. Any University employee who knowingly permitted, authorized, or condoned hazing activity is subject to disciplinary action by the University.

VI. Violations of this policy by students or student organizations can be reported by filing a Student Code of Conduct complaint with the Dean of Students Office.

The Dean of Students Office will investigate the complaint in accordance with the Student Disciplinary Procedures. The Student Disciplinary Procedures shall govern all proceedings involving such a complaint. Sanctions, if appropriate, will be imposed in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.

VII. Violations of this policy by faculty, staff and other employees are subject to discipline in accordance with the Arizona Board of Regents’ and University’s policies and procedures governing employee misconduct. Violations by faculty, staff or other employees can be reported in writing to the Provost for referral to and investigation by the appropriate administrator(s) or supervisor(s).

Any violation involving a crime, emergency or an imminent threat to the health or safety of any person should be reported immediately by dialing 911 to reach local law enforcement officials.

VIII. The University will report to law enforcement any complaint of hazing involving criminal conduct that creates a substantial risk to the health or safety of any person in the University community. Such reporting shall include, but not be limited to, criminal homicide, sex offenses, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson, liquor law violations, drug law violations, and illegal weapons possession.

IX. This policy is not intended to prohibit or sanction the following conduct:
   a. Customary public athletic events, contests or competitions that are sponsored by the University; or
   b. Any activity or conduct that furthers the goals of a legitimate educational curriculum, a legitimate extracurricular program or a legitimate military training program.

X. For the purposes of this policy:
   a. "Organization" means an athletic team, association, order, society, corps, cooperative, club, student organization, fraternity, sorority or other similar group that is affiliated with the University and whose membership consists primarily of students enrolled at the University. "Organization" includes a local chapter, unit or other local division consisting primarily of students, regardless of the nature of the membership of the larger public or private organization.
   b. "Student" means any person who is enrolled at the University, any person who has been promoted or accepted for enrollment at the University or any person who intends to enroll at or be promoted to the University within the next twelve calendar months. A person who meets the definition of a student for purposes of this policy shall continue to be defined as a student for purposes of this section until the person graduates, transfers, is promoted, or withdraws from the University.

NOTE: To report a hazing incident or to ask questions regarding the policy call 626-HAZE (4293)
RAFFLE POLICY

Student organizations conducting raffles must complete a Raffle Form with the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership (SUMC 404) PRIOR to selling tickets. The University reserves the right to prohibit raffles at any time, and students assume all risk in running a raffle that such activity, depending on its structure, may be deemed illegal gambling under Arizona law.

A. It must be clearly stated that the organization is responsible for all aspects of the raffle and that funds collected are used to benefit the group’s programming budget, service to the University community, and/or philanthropic endeavors.

B. It must be clearly stated that the University neither endorses nor sponsors the activity. The organization must provide a disclaimer of any University sponsorship, or endorsement of the event, preferably on the raffle tickets.

C. No University funds may be used to initiate or underwrite raffle expenses.

D. Student organizations conducting raffles must be recognized by the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership.

E. All organizations that wish to conduct raffles or other fundraising activities must have in their constitutions a statement that they are not-for-profit.

F. No individual organization member may benefit directly or indirectly from the raffle.

G. No person except a bona fide local member of the organization may participate directly or indirectly in the management, sales, or operation of the raffle.

H. No organization should make representations with regard to the taxable status of money paid for the purchase of raffle tickets.

I. It must be clearly stated that no portion of the funds raised may be used to purchase alcohol or illegal substances in violation of state law and University alcohol policies.

RISK AND LIABILITY POLICY

The wide variety of interests and activities represented by recognized student organizations and student government at the University of Arizona have an equally wide variety of potential risks and liabilities associated with them. All Student Organizations are required as a condition of recognition by the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership to conduct their activities in such a manner to maximize safety and health, and to attempt to prevent accidents, injuries, illnesses, or other losses. This charge also applies to officers and representatives of student government.

For most routine organization activities such as regular meetings or social gatherings, members are solely responsible for their own actions, and any loss, damage, or other liability incurred as a result of those actions. The University of Arizona cannot accept any responsibility for any individual’s actions unless that person is clearly acting on behalf of the University within the course and scope of express authorization.

Student government and/or organization members may be provided liability protection for certain actions by the State of Arizona Risk Management Program (A.R.S. 41-621) on an excess basis, provided the following conditions are met:

- All individuals to be covered by this program must be recognized by Center for Student Involvement & Leadership as authorized volunteers who are performing a specific task or service on behalf of The University of Arizona.

- Liability coverage is for official business only. Accordingly, the volunteer activity must further the goals of the University, and must be conducted under the direction and approval of a responsible University official acting in an official capacity, and not as a private individual.

- Job and/or activity descriptions for volunteers must be submitted in writing to the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership for review and filing. Center for Student Involvement & Leadership and UA Risk Management will determine if the proposed activity meets the volunteer coverage criteria described above. The final determination of coverage rests with the Arizona Department of Administration, Risk Management Section.

- This liability protection is valid only to the extent that the volunteer’s actions are within the course and scope of the authorized volunteer activity, and only while performing the activity.

- In the event that individual liability is incurred as a result of activities outside the course and scope of authorized volunteer service, The University of Arizona and the State of Arizona are prohibited by statute from accepting any portion of that liability. All responsibility for damages rests solely with the responsible individual.

Contracting Issues

It must be emphasized that this program is intended to provide liability protection for individuals who meet the volunteer criteria. Student organizations are not legal entities that can be insured or covered by the state program. However, student organizations frequently enter into contracts or other agreements with outside vendors or other entities. Because these are not University contracts, any obligations or liabilities agreed to are solely the responsibility of those entering the agreement, including any insurance provisions. In addition, the state program does not cover losses arising from contracts in any event, including University losses. Any contract or agreement that obligates the University in any way must be forwarded through Center for Student Involvement & Leadership to the University Contracting officer for signature. Students are not authorized to enter contracts on behalf of the University.

University Facility Use
Recognized student organizations may use University facilities for regular meetings and other events, in accordance with existing policies and procedures for such use. In the event of damage or other loss that results from negligence or improper behavior by one or more individuals, the State has the right to seek recovery of damages from responsible parties. Questions concerning this policy and its interpretation should be directed to Stephen Hollins, Insurance Officer, Risk Management and Safety, at 621-1790.

Tax Identification Number TIN/EIN
(Also known as Employer Identification Number) To receive monetary awards from All-Campus Leadership Awards, participate in Spring Fling, or obtain an off-campus bank account you will need a tax identification number. Recognized student organizations at the University of Arizona cannot use the University’s tax identification number. You may apply for a tax identification number online at www.irs.gov/businesses/small/article/0_cid=10276700.html

For further information you may call 1-800-829-3676 or refer to Publication 557, which can be found at www.irs.ustreas.gov.

How To Become a Tax Exempt (non-profit) Organization
If you would like to register your organization as non-profit with Internal Revenue Services you must complete a 501 (C)(4) tax form. This form can be obtained from the IRS website at www.irs.ustreas.gov. Officers may be personally responsible for any IRS or other sanctions arising from improper activities relating to possible 501 (C)(4) status.

Use of Non-University Funds
Non-University funds are those raised or provided by you or third parties. Non-University funds may be used for the Garage, Facilities Management, Audio-Visual, and the Arizona Student Unions. The president and treasurer (or two students leading your organization) are required to sign the “Responsibility Agreement for Expenditures” on the Recognition Application. Those signatures allow your organization to pay these departments directly using a check or cash. Once recognized, a list of the students who signed for responsibility in each organization will be forwarded to the four departments. The departments will have your President and Treasurer names on file when you go to request goods or services. The following guidelines apply for using non-University funds when arranging and paying for services:
1. The Treasurer or President is the only authorized person who may deal with these four departments. He/she is the only one authorized to order goods or services from the Departments. By signing the financial liability statement on the recognition application, the President and Treasurer become the authorized agents of the student organization.
2. Your organization can order the same goods and services from these Departments that on-campus units can. The Department shall determine when payment will be made.
3. Your student organization will pay the appropriate Department directly with a check/cash from your off-campus bank account; your organization must work with the Department to determine when payment will be due.
4. If a Department has a problem with your student organization’s payment, a representative of the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership will act as an intermediary to resolve the situation between your organization and the department.
5. As Treasurer and/or President you may be personally responsible for your organization’s debts to Departments.

If you have any questions about the Guidelines for using Non-University funds please contact Center for Student Involvement & Leadership, 621-8046.

Central Room Reservation Application
(On Campus Organization)
Policy Governing Use of University Classrooms for Non-teaching Activities

Revised Summer 2007

The University of Arizona in some cases may make classroom facilities available for non-teaching activities, provided these activities are consistent with the mission of the University. Facilities can be made available only if there is no conflict with The University of Arizona classes.

A. The following policies govern the use of classroom facilities for non-teaching activities:

1. All requests for room use must be made at least two weeks in advance through Room and Course Scheduling.
   a. Revisions to reservations which have already been scheduled must be submitted via the online Request form at least one week in advance.
2. No smoking, alcoholic beverages, food, drink, or refreshments are allowed in centrally-scheduled classrooms.
3. No candles incense, or other flammable items may be burned in centrally scheduled classrooms.
4. Campus organizations are responsible for keeping noise level to a minimum and must be considerate of classes in nearby rooms.
5. Only the current president or treasurer may make room reservations for campus organizations.
6. Organizations' officers, as renters of university instructional spaces, are responsible for any damage to rooms or buildings as a result of their room usage. Campus organizations are also responsible for returning tables and chairs to their original positions and leaving the classroom clean and orderly.
7. If special parking is needed, the group using the facility must make arrangements directly with the University Parking and Transportation Office.
8. Room reservations do not include the use of audiovisual equipment. All requests regarding the use of equipment must be made through the University Teaching Center’s Audio/Visual Department (621-3852).
9. Recognition Process and Room Requests:
   a. Campus organizations that are recognized in the Fall may only reserve rooms for events scheduled between the 3rd week of the Fall semester and last day of classes. No campus organizations may schedule events in centrally scheduled rooms during final exam periods.
   i. Campus organizations that take advantage of Early Bird Recognition may submit their room requests for the first 2 weeks of the following semester as soon as they are recognized. Room & Course Scheduling will be tentatively processing the events that occur within the first two weeks of classes, after 6 PM, only in Modern Languages and McClelland, to ensure that the scheduling needs of courses, course events, and department events are met. All room reservations for campus organizations using Early Bird Recognition will be canceled if members of the organization do not attend the mandatory meeting for campus organizations.
   b. Campus organizations that are recognized in the Spring may reserve rooms for events between the 3rd week of the Spring semester and the last day of classes. No campus organizations may schedule events in centrally scheduled rooms during final exam periods.
   i. Room & Course Scheduling will be tentatively processing events that occur within the first two weeks of classes, after 6 PM, only in Modern Languages and McClelland, to ensure that the scheduling needs of courses, course events, and department events are met.
10. Special Circumstances Regarding the Use of Centrally-Scheduled Rooms

a. Campus organizations may not reserve centrally-scheduled rooms during final exam periods
b. Campus organizations may not reserve centrally-scheduled rooms during any time that the University is closed, including, but not limited to, winter shut-down.
c. Campus organizations may not reserve centrally-scheduled rooms prior to 7:00 a.m. or after 10:00 p.m. per UAPD and Custodial Services.
11. If the officers of the Campus Organization change at any time during the year, the organization is responsible for notifying Room & Course Scheduling and updating the appropriate paperwork. If the organization fails to notify Room & Course Scheduling of the change of officers, the last officers on file will be held accountable for all organization events in centrally-scheduled rooms.
12. All room reservations for on-campus organizations are subject to change if courses or departments require the classroom space.

13. Failure to comply with any of the above policies will result in revocation of future room reservation privileges.

14. Use of centrally-scheduled space for non-teaching activities is a privilege. Room & Course Scheduling reserves the right to cancel or suspend campus organizations’ room reservations at any time during the semester if there is pending business between Room & Course Scheduling and the organization or if complaints are issued regarding the organization’s room usage.

B. Policy regarding charges for room use:
Definition: A campus organization is one that has been recognized by the University of Arizona through the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership (621-6853). All other organizations are considered outside organizations. If an event is to be co-sponsored by a campus organization along with an outside organization, it is considered to be a University co-sponsored event, in so far as this policy is concerned.

1. Campus organizations may reserve two classrooms (50 seats or less) or one auditorium per week with a four-hour maximum time limit per room without charge. Additional rooms or reservations exceeding the four-hour maximum are subject to room rental fees.

2. Campus organizations may use rooms free of charge if they do not charge admission or accept donations at the door. However, if they charge admission or accept donations at the door, they must pay the appropriate fee.

3. Campus organizations choosing to co-sponsor off-campus groups are subject to a different schedule of room fees for the co-sponsored event(s). The campus organization must provide a letter of co-sponsorship signed by both the president and treasurer of the campus organization in support of the co-sponsored event(s). The off-campus group must contact Risk Management at 621-1790 to provide proof of insurance.

4. The fee must be paid to the Room and Course Scheduling Office at least three days prior to the day of the event. (Checks should be made out to the University of Arizona.) Effective Meetings

Tips for Running an Effective Meeting
(Adapted from SOURCE – Student Organization Useful Resource for Co-curricular Experience, University of Nebraska, Student Involvement)

Before the Meeting:
• Determine the purpose of the meeting and the structure with which to conduct the meeting.
• Develop an agenda; this should include the purpose, topics, discussion facilitators and time estimates.
• Distribute the agenda and any other materials members may need in order to arrive prepared.
• Choose an appropriate meeting time and location; if at all possible, pick a time and location that stays the same from week to week.

During the Meeting:
• Start and end on time. Be sure to stick to the agenda.
• Encourage members to participate in discussion. That is the point of having a meeting, to get input from all members. If no input is wanted or needed, consider not having a meeting, instead distribute a memorandum or newsletter. Announcements should be a part of the meeting, not the entire meeting. Members will get bored with meetings if they are not involved.
• Keep the discussion focused on the topic at hand. Take accurate and detailed minutes of the meeting. As the leader or facilitator of the meeting, be sure to role model good listening skills, open mindedness, acceptance of differences and different opinions, and flexibility.
• Set a date, time, and location of the next meeting before and adjourning.

After the Meeting:
• Type up and distribute minutes of the meeting in a timely manner.
• Discuss any problems that occurred during the meeting with other officers or your advisor. Evaluate the meeting with other members. Suggestions can help you to improve your meetings.
• Follow-up on tasks, check in with members on tasks they are responsible for completing and see if they need help. Put any unfinished business on the next agenda.

Give recognition and appreciation to members for work well done.
FIVE STAGES OF GROUP DEVELOPMENT
(Adapted from http://www.chimaeraconsulting.com/tuckman.htm)

Bruce Tuckman described the four distinct stages that a group can experience as it comes together and starts to operate. This process can be subconscious although an understanding of the stages can help a group reach effectiveness more quickly and less painfully.

Forming:
Individual behavior is driven by a desire to be accepted by the others, avoiding controversy or conflict. Serious issues and feelings are avoided, and people focus on being busy with routines, such as team organization (who does what, when to meet, etc). Individuals are also gathering information and impressions - about each other and about the scope of the task and how to approach it. This is a comfortable stage to be in, but the avoidance or threat of conflict means that not much actually gets done.

Storming:
Individuals in the group can only remain nice to each other for so long. As important issues start to be addressed, some people’s patience will break early, and minor confrontations will arise that are quickly dealt with or glossed over. These may relate to the work of the group itself or to roles and responsibilities within the group. Some will observe that it is good to be getting into the real issues while others may wish to remain in the comfort and security of “The Forming Stage.” Depending on the culture of the organization and individuals, the conflict may be more or less suppressed, but it will be there, under the surface. To deal with the conflict, individuals will look for structural clarity and rules to prevent the conflict persisting.

Norming:
As “Storming” evolves, the "rules of engagement" for the group become established, and the scope of the group’s tasks or responsibilities are clear and agreed upon. Having had their arguments, members now understand each other better, and can appreciate each other’s skills and experience. Individuals listen to each other, appreciate and support each other, and are prepared to change pre-conceived views. They feel they are part of a cohesive, effective group. However, individuals have had to work hard to attain this stage, and may resist any pressure to change - especially from the outside - for fear that the group will break up or revert to the storming stage.

Performing:
Not all groups reach this stage, which is characterized by a state of interdependence and flexibility. Everyone knows each other well enough to be able to work together and trusts each other enough to allow for independent activity. Roles and responsibilities change according to need in an almost seamless way. Group identity, loyalty, and morale are all high, and everyone is equally task-orientated and people-orientated. This high degree of comfort means that all the energy of the group can be directed towards the task(s) in hand.

Adjourning:
This is about completion and disengagement, both from the tasks and the group members. Individuals will be proud of achievements and glad to have been part of such an enjoyable group. They need to recognize what they’ve done and consciously move on.

Tuckman's original work simply described the way he had observed groups evolve, whether they were conscious of it or not. But for us the real value is in recognizing where a group is in the process, and helping it to move to the Performing stage. In the real world, groups are often forming and changing, and each time that happens, they can move to a different Development Stage. A group might be happily Norming or Performing, but a new member might force them back into Storming. Seasoned leaders will be ready for this, and will help the group get back to Performing as quickly as possible.
Guidelines for Bulk Mailing

UA RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATION
Bulk Mail Procedures: Step by Step Instructions

BEFORE YOU MAKE COPIES OF YOUR MAILING, YOU MUST FOLLOW ALL GUIDELINES LISTED IN THE STUDENT ORGANIZATION POLICY AND FORM HANDBOOK!

CONTACT AND INFORMATION
1. Center for Student Involvement & Leadership
   Student Union Memorial Center, Room 404
   621-6853   uaorgs@email.arizona.edu

ORIGINAL COPY
2. You must bring a “proof/original copy” of your mailing to the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership (SUMC 404) prior to having it printed/copied. If your mailer is in a language other than English, you must provide us with an English version. This will help to insure that your mailing is correct and approved before you make copies.

MINIMUM NUMBER OF COPIES
3. You must have at least 200 pieces of the same information to be mailed. No handwritten notes. Mailing should not include any advertising from vendors/sponsors.

ADDRESSES
4. a) Addresses must be legible. They may be handwritten, although handwritten addresses take longer to reach their destination. For faster results, labels should be prepared. The label should be in all capital letters and there should be no punctuation used. Zip codes must contain all five numbers (e.g. 85710). Please check each piece before bringing the mail.
   Example label:
   JOHN D MEMBER
   FINANCE COMMITTEE
   E CACTUS STREET APT 248
   TUCSON AZ 85755

b) Return addresses MUST be on each piece and must be EXACTLY as follows:
   THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
   CENTER FOR STUDENT INVOLVEMENT & LEADERSHIP
   YOUR CLUB NAME
   THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
   P O BOX 210017
   TUCSON AZ 85721-0017

PERMIT
5. You may PRE-PRINT the Non-Profit stamp (See example below) or you may hand stamp when you arrive at Center for Student Involvement & Leadership.

Guidelines for Bulk Mailing

SEALING
6. Seal each envelope by using tape, adhesive tabs, or by licking the glue on the envelope itself. NO STAPLES! We will only accept envelopes or 8 " x 11" folded sheets.

SORTING
7. a) Separate all pieces by the 5 digit Zip Code.
   Example: All 85603’s are grouped together; all 85719’s are grouped together. Do this until all zip codes within the mailing have been grouped.

   b) Count all the pieces by the 5 digit Zip Code
   Example: 85701 – 35 pieces 85702 – 40 pieces

8. Each Zip Code needs at least 10 pieces to make a batch. If you have nine or less of the same Zip Code then put those to the side in a “mixed zip code” pile. Within the “discard” pile, pieces should all be going to the same first three digits in a Zip Code. For example, all the Zip Codes starting with 857 should be grouped together. Please keep all 857 and 856 Zip Codes separate.

   Mixed States
   After you have sorted the 3 and 5 digit pieces, let the Office Manager in Student Union Memorial Center, Room 404, know and they will help you sort the rest of the mailing.

General Instructions

- Face all addresses in the same direction
- Secure packaged groupings with rubber bands. Rubber band the mailing using the following recommended methods
  - One rubber band around the girth for package up to one inch in thickness
  - Two rubber bands (one around the length and one around the girth) for packages between one and four inches (always band LENGTHWISE FIRST, THEN AROUND THE GIRTH).
  - Package size should be no more than four inches thick.

When mailing out a flyer or letter without an envelope for bulk mail: You need to fold the item so that the fold is at the bottom and the open ends face the top so mail machine can properly handle the mail. Tape the top center of the mail if there is a single sheet. With multiple sheets, tape the left and right side of the mail shut.

   Again, the folded portion of the mail should be at the bottom.

FINAL STAGES

1) Bring your mailing into the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership—Student Union Memorial Center, Rm 404.
2) You will affix labels and place mail into cardboard trays which the Center provides.
3) You will take the completed mailing to Printing and Graphic Services (West Stadium Room 102 (Gate 13) — Attention: Georgeanne Tesi) along with your check. OR You may choose to bring your mailing directly to the Cherrybell Post Office. Make sure you bring three copies of your mailing with you! If you use the Post Office, you will need to have a letter of authorization from the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership. See Office Manager in SUMC 404.

ASK QUESTIONS IF YOU ARE UNSURE ABOUT ANY PORTION OF THE PROCESS!!

Remember, failure to comply with bulk mail regulations could result in delay or payment of postage at a higher rate. The Postal Service seeks to treat your mail as expeditiously as possible! To do so, there must be a commitment to proper preparation.

So what’s the definition of hazing?

“Hazing” means any intentional, knowing, or reckless act committed by a student, whether individually or in concert with other persons, against another student, and in which both of the following apply:

- The act was committed in connection with an initiation into, an affiliation with, or the maintenance of membership in any organization that is affiliated with an educational institution.
- The act contributes to a substantial risk of potential physical injury, mental harm, or degradation, or causes physical injury, mental harm, or personal degradation.

It’s not a defense to say the hazing victim consented. All UA students, staff, and teachers are required to take reasonable measures to prevent violations of the hazing policy and to report violations.

See if you can identify which of the following activities are hazing:

- Forced consumption of drugs or food.
- Forced consumption of large amounts of water, alcohol, milk.
- Push-ups, sit-ups or other calisthenics
- Signature books or paddle signatures
- Scavenger hunts with time limits, or for meaningless or irrelevant objects
- Cleaning organizational or other members’ properties
- Running personal errands for members
- Paddling or physically striking in any way with physical contact.
- Purchasing items for group members
- Capturing or kidnapping members

If you identified all ten of the activities as hazing, YOU ARE CORRECT!

Warning Signs of Hazing in Your Organization:

- Members justifying an activity by saying “it’s tradition”
- The presence of alcohol
- Secrecy
- Peer pressure for everyone to participate
- Singling out an individual or specific group
- Miscellaneous forms of bad judgment

Conduct an organization “self test”:

- Would we be ok with this being in our city or campus newspaper?
- Would we perform this activity in front of our parents or a University administrator?
- Does this activity involve criminal acts? (Including minors consuming alcohol)
- Would we be prepared to go to court to defend the merit of this activity?
- Have we had a close call?

Remember, hazing is a form of abuse!

“I know it’s wrong, but I had no way to stop it.”

What can you do?

Don’t be a bystander; take a stand against hazing. All members have to be willing to speak up.

Seek advice:

- Call an advisor
- Call the Hazing Hotline (626-HAZE)
- Ask others who aren’t involved in the activity
- Talk to parents or someone you trust
- Call 911 if there is an immediate threat

Or, call the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership ahead of the event to get advice on planned activities.

Simple Ways to Thank, Recognize, and Motivate your Members.
(Adapted from “Thanking, Recognizing, and Motivating Your Members” Indiana University, Greek Life Advisor’s Manual, 2001)

• Say “Thank You.” Thank yous can mean a lot, both publically and privately, when they are sincere.

• Celebrate after a success.

• Let a member know that you’ve noticed their hard work.

• Announce when a member has something to celebrate, like a birthday, a job offer, admission to grad school, etc.

• Create a message board where members can leave each other messages of praise.

• Create a scrapbook to record fun and successful events.

• Put a note of encouragement or thanks where a member will least expect it, like on their car or in their bookbag.

• Give a member a bag of their favorite candy or another treat.

• Decorate a member’s door for a special occasion.

• Offer to help someone out when they seem to be overloaded.
