The Student Union Memorial Center (SUMC) is a place of restricted public access. The public is generally subject to the same rules as students and employees. The space is open to all students and employees, and restricted to the public, as designated by the University. Visitors will be required to leave.

The Student Union Memorial Center (SUMC) is a place of restricted public access. The public is generally subject to the same rules as students and employees. The space is open to all students and employees, and restricted to the public, as designated by the University. Visitors will be required to leave.

The Student Union Memorial Center (SUMC) is a place of restricted public access. The public is generally subject to the same rules as students and employees. The space is open to all students and employees, and restricted to the public, as designated by the University. Visitors will be required to leave.